

THE DAILY APPEAL.

SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 8, 1857.

We are again indebted to the agent of the Adams Express Company for late papers.

Mr. McCARTHY, the very attentive clerk of the fine steamer J. H. Zeez, has our thanks for his late St. Louis date.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—Elder T. J. DIXON has arrived in our City, and will enter on his services as Pastor of the First Baptist Church next Sunday.

Mr. GORDON W. BARNES, of Monroe, Sun, announces himself as a candidate for County Trustee through our columns this morning.

We would direct attention to the card of J. P. TAYLOR, No. 89 Bowery, who has removed his Commercial house in this city and in New Orleans, and is now fully "afloat."

The Hon. H. S. BENNETT, late member of Congress from the Second District of Mississippi, passed through the city yesterday on his return from a visit to Kansas Territory. He was looking in fine health.

CITY SCHOOLS.—We are authorized by the Superintendent to state that Mr. MARSHALL will open his school on Monday next, at the corner of Union and Shelby streets, over the store of Messrs. PEPPER & SON.

Mr. CONRAD CLARK, engaged to go to the leading business in our new Theatre, is in the city. His performances in New York were highly successful among the first in his profession. He is a fine actor, a perfect gentleman, and will make an interesting feature with the citizens of Memphis.

PRAIRIE SCHOOL.—The Board of visitors have succeeded in raising money in the Botanic Medical College, and also in Ryle's building on the corner of Herkimer and Beale streets, to take up the place of the house recently burned. The school exercises will be resumed regularly Monday next.

HANDSOME PAGEANT.—We were yesterday shown by Mr. WIGGERS, a gorgeously wrought silver Speaking Trumpet, presented by Mr. CHARLES POTTER to the Hook and Ladder Company. The pageant was executed in New York, and was a masterpiece of art, one hundred dollars.

We clip the following from the Missouri Republican:

THE RIVER.—We have no important news from the river. At this time the river water is about stationary, with six feet east of Cairo. The Mississippi river is very bad, commencing at Vicksburg, and getting worse daily. The lower Mississippi is about stationary, with thirty-four feet east of Vicksburg, a foot less than yesterday.

PARIS MILLINERY.—The Board of visitors have succeeded in raising money in the Botanic Medical College, and also in Ryle's building on the corner of Herkimer and Beale streets, to take up the place of the house recently burned. The school exercises will be resumed regularly Monday next.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's father, on the 20th of September, 1857, by J. Thompson, Esq., JAMES L. REED, of the County Auditor, and Miss ELIZA C. REED, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. REED.

Mr. REED is a citizen of this city, and a member of the 39th Regt.

THE RIVER.—We have no important news from the river. At this time the river water is about stationary, with six feet east of Cairo.
